To Whom It May Concern,

As principal of Aurora High School, I have had the pleasure of working with the All School Assembly Program (ASAP) leadership team for a number of years. Specifically, ASAP has worked with Aurora High School to bring in three different speakers who have met the needs of our school. Rich Garza, Ray McElroy, and Dan Smith & the Momentum Band have all come to Aurora High to speak to our students covering a variety of topics. In general, our students were very receptive to the speakers' message and often stayed after to share stories with our guests.

ASAP took the time to find out what we were looking for in a speaker for our school. Once they had a target to shoot for, ASAP then suggested a number of different speakers that could meet our expectations. I was then able to research the speakers and even talk to other principals who have had the speakers in for their own assemblies. ASAP is a great resource that has helped to cut down on my research time to find a quality speaker. After working with ASAP for a number of years, I have come to trust their recommendations.

The All Schools Assembly Program has done a great job of working with us to bring in quality speakers to our high school and I highly recommend ASAP for any school.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Roberto
